

DON BOSCO COLLEGE

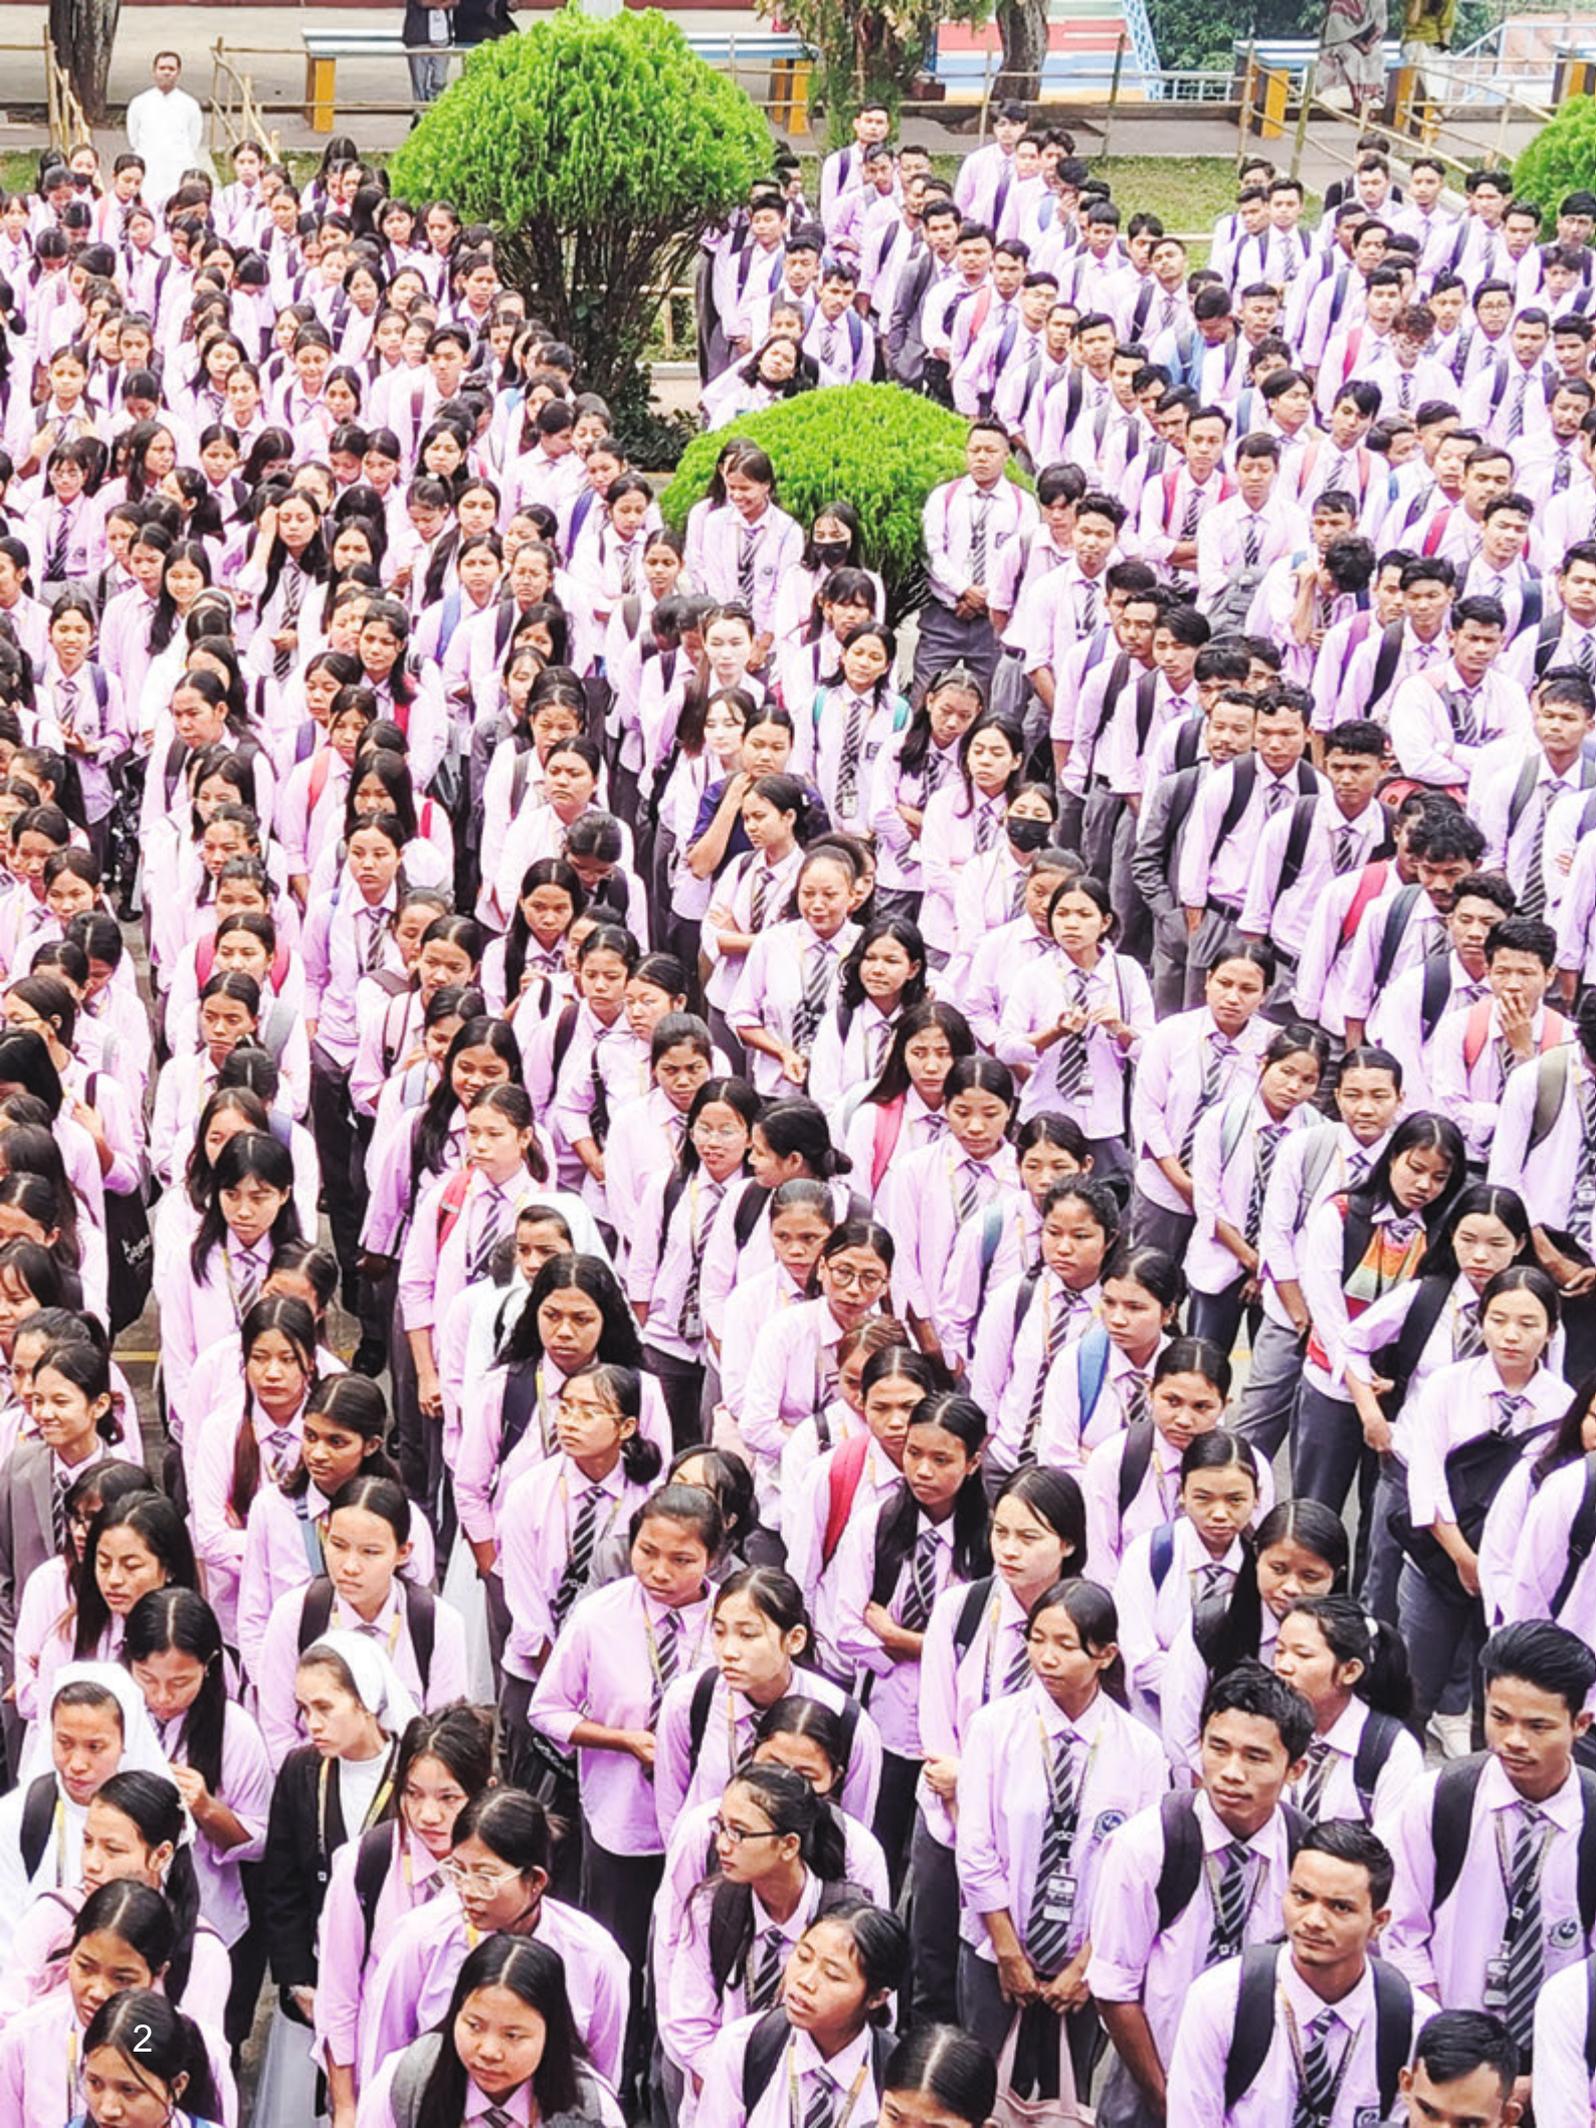

Tura - 794002, Meghalaya
(Re-accredited with 'B' Grade by NAAC)

Four Year Undergraduate Programme (FYUP)

PROSPECTUS 2024-2025

I. DON BOSCO

The College is named after St John Bosco, popularly known as Don Bosco, the founder of the religious and educational order 'Salesians of Don Bosco'. Don Bosco was born in 1815, in a poor family near Turin, Italy. By dint of hard work and heroic sacrifices he became a priest in 1841. He dedicated himself to the service of poor youth, offering them food, shelter and education. He opened for them schools, technical schools, youth hostels and oratories. He founded a society of collaborators and extended his work all over Europe and eventually to all continents. Don Bosco died on 31 January 1888 and was declared a saint on 1 April 1934.

Don Bosco based his system of education on the three pillars of Reason, Religion and Loving Kindness. He looked after the youth as a caring father, and dedicated himself totally to their welfare. He visualized education in the context of the needs of the community. Vocational guidance, training and job placement were integral to his educational system.

II. DON BOSCO SOCIETY

Don Bosco Society, also known as 'The Salesians of Don Bosco' is a Religious Order of the Catholic Church. The Society has over 16,000 members working in 136 countries. Through a global network of educational and social service organizations which include 15 universities, 58 institutes of higher education and thousands of schools and social development centres, it cares to the less privileged and marginalized sections of society. Don Bosco institutions currently cater to over fifteen million young people across the world. Because of its outreach and expertise in the field of education, the Society enjoys consultancy status at the United Nations (UN) and has a permanent office in the UN headquarters in New York.

III. DON BOSCO SOCIETY IN INDIA

In India, the Salesians of Don Bosco began their operations in 1906. From a humble beginning with a trade school and hostel for poor children at Thanjavoor, Tamil Nadu, the Society today has over 2500 members. Its services are offered through a university, 31 colleges, over 100 technical schools, and a large network of high schools and scores of non-formal, vocational, technical and agricultural training centres, spread across the country, covering a vast spectrum of social development. The society also runs literacy centres, homes for street children and rehabilitation and relief centres.

IV. DON BOSCO COLLEGE, TURA

Don Bosco College, Tura, is an educational institution of the Catholic Church, belonging to the global Don Bosco Society and managed by the Salesians of Don Bosco, North East India, with headquarters in Guwahati, Assam. The Salesian Provincial Superior is the President of the Governing Body of the College. The College was established in 1987 with the intention of bringing higher education within the reach of the people of Garo Hills.

The College has distinguished itself as one of the premier institutions of higher education in Meghalaya. Today with over a hundred teaching and non-teaching staff, the College caters to about 3200 students in the morning, day and evening shifts.

V. VISION

Inspired by the noble teachings of Lord Jesus Christ who said, I am the Way, the Truth and the Life (Jn 14:6), and guided by the moral and educational philosophy of St John Bosco, Don Bosco College has the avowed aim of bringing holistic, quality education within the reach of all. The College educates young pupils in the Don Bosco way to become honest and upright citizens, wholesome, socially responsible and committed persons. It faithfully carries forward the legacy bequeathed by Don Bosco, based on Reason, Religion and Loving Kindness.

VI. MISSION

The College aims to provide an education that is participatory in nature, intellectually competent, multi-skill oriented, value-based and socially committed, for the development of persons and enrichment of society. It endeavours to offer an education which values and nurtures the religious, spiritual, intellectual, moral, aesthetic, social and physical development of each student. It strives to facilitate the building of student-student and teacher-student rapport as an appropriate, even vital relationship, to empower our young to develop a sense of purpose and respect for self, others and the environment.

VII. COAT OF ARMS

The Coat of Arms of the College contains the motto of the College, "In Pursuit of Excellence" and three distinct components- sun, eagle and mountains. The radiant sun is the source and giver of light, energy, inspiration and divine guidance. The soaring eagle is the seeker that looks for all that is good, noble and uplifting in the world of knowledge, skills and values. The green mountains and valleys represent the process whereby the seeker ascends, descends and strives until he/she arrives at the top. True to its motto, the College strives to be passionate about excellence in every sphere of academic, professional and social activities.

Certifications

Don Bosco College is a Registered Society under the Societies Registration Act of 1860. It is permanently affiliated to North Eastern Hill University (NEHU) for Degree Courses in Arts, Science and Commerce. The College is recognized by UGC under 2 (f) and 12-B. XII. CODE OF ETHICS AND BEHAVIOURAL GUIDELINES

Code of ethics is an integral part of every Don Bosco Institution. It serves as a guideline for forming attitudes and directing conduct. Don Bosco College, Tura (DBCT), being an institution committed to imparting value-based education, presupposes the existence of an environment of integrity. The faculty, students and administrative staff share the responsibility for maintaining this environment.

DBCT expects this code to help mould every student into persons of integrity whose life is characterized by harmonious and God - centred life. All the members of the College community are expected to abide by this code in letter and in spirit, within and outside the campus:

1. DBCT believes in and fosters personal, academic and professional integrity. Among other things, integrity calls for:
 - Being honest in examinations and assignments, avoiding plagiarism and misrepresentation of facts
 - Not using computers or other electronic devices to gain access to unauthorized information or objectionable websites.
 - Not evading legitimate financial obligations.
2. A student of DBCT cultivates a basic God - orientation that contributes to the development of an integral healthy personality. This requires:
 - Respect for all religions and faith.
 - Active participation in the assembly and prayer sessions organized from time to time.
3. Avoiding substance abuse such as use of tobacco, alcohol, drugs, etc., within and outside the College Campus.
4. While cell phones have become very common, it is necessary that they be used with proper etiquette. Their use during academic activities and official functions violates this etiquette. To prevent this, cell phones shall remain switched off in the campus, except in the canteen and in the grounds.
5. DBCT being a Don Bosco Institution upholds the value of family spirit. This is to be ensured by:
 - Cordiality in relationship between and among students and staff members.
 - Harmonious living and respect for members of other communities and religions.
 - Not taking part in divisive activities and partisan politics or forming associations which go counter to the spirit of harmonious living. While the college fosters associations which have representatives from among the students, staff and management, political activities are not permitted in the college premises.
6. Ragging and eve-teasing are activities which violate the dignity of the person and will not be tolerated. These will be dealt with according to the laws in force.
7. DBCT values community service as an integral part of education. Whenever the college organizes programmes to achieve this end, students are expected to take part in these whole-heartedly.
8. Discipline is an essential aspect of the maturing process. The college shall provide an environment conducive to self-discipline. To maintain this environment:
 - Students shall treat teachers and those in authority with due respect.
 - Acts of indiscipline, insubordination and interference in administration are unacceptable.
9. Education is more than acquiring knowledge.
 - The college organizes programmes aimed at enhancing the skills of students. Active participation in these programmes is mandatory.
10. Care and respect for common facilities and utilities are an essential component of social responsibility. In view of this, any willful damage to college property must be made good by the persons concerned.
11. One's own safety as well as that of others should be a primary concern of every student. While the college makes every effort to provide a safe and secure environment for work and study, the responsibility for individual safety lies with each student. The college cannot be held accountable for accidents due to carelessness or indiscipline.

Please Note:

- * We have no agents or middlemen acting on our behalf. Applicants are advised to be on guard against unscrupulous persons promising seats in this college for monetary considerations.

- * We do not accept donations or capitation fees of any kind in connection with admissions. Please inform if there is any case of soliciting for such favour at any level at the time of Entrance Test or Admission.
- * Fees once paid are not refundable.
